

ISIZULU: MODERN DICTIONARY

IFP leader Dr Mangosuthu Buthelezi receives the new Oxford isiZulu English School Bilingual Dictionary from Oxford University Press managing director Lieze Kotze during the launch of the new dictionary at the Zimbali Lodge yesterday. Kotze said the new edition is far more modern than one produced 40 years ago, and contains 5 000 more words. It is not intended as a comprehensive dictionary of the language, but is aimed at schoolchildren learning isiZulu language. At the launch dictionaries, atlases and other study material were handed over to the Khanyisa Development Trust for 11 rural KZN schools.
